

Copper Basin Bible Camp provides a summer camp for teens and children in which they can grow in Christ through study of God's word and interaction with other campers in the setting of God's natural creation.

Copper Basin Bible Camp is nestled in the beauty of God's creation amid the cool pines of the Prescott National Forest southwest of Prescott, Arizona. Each week of camp is supervised by a different Director. Counselors are college-age Christians, many studying for careers in ministry.

The theme of camp this year is Upsidedown. Campers will explore God's sometimes unusual or counterintuitive ways to accomplish His purposes. (Isaiah 55:8)

Cub Camp is a mini-camp designed for children who have completed kindergarten through 2nd grade (entering 1st through 3rd). The sessions run for two days and two nights. This camp introduces the camp experience to younger campers without the anxiety of being away from home too long. One parent (or grandparent/ guardian) must accompany their child.
